

Lauren Jordan has become the newest member of the King's University College Women's basketball team. Lauren a 5'5" guard from Leduc Composite High School joins the Eagles after a successful high school as a Tiger where she was a Nait All City all star and MVP and captain for the past two years. The niece of All Canadian Maia de Klerk, Lauren brings her hard hat to the court everyday as she plans to follow in Maia's footsteps in becoming a great student athlete here at King's.