FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

King's hosts all Candidates Forum for Edmonton-Strathcona riding

Edmonton – King's University College is proud to host an all Candidates Forum for the Edmonton-Strathcona riding TODAY at 7:00 pm in the King's Atrium.

The event will provide each candidate opportunity to discuss their respective party's platform as well as answer questions from members of the public.

This particular forum will include questions related to Omar Khadr, whose case was recently featured at King's by his lawyer Dennis Edney. Khadr is a young Muslim man who was branded a terrorist, without trial, and is the only citizen of a U.S. ally who is being held at the prison at Guantanamo Bay.

The King's campus is located at 9125 – 50 street, Edmonton. The forum will take place in the King's Atrium.

The King's University College offers fully accredited Bachelor degrees in the arts, humanities, music, social sciences, natural sciences and commerce/management, as well as an education after degree. King's currently serves over 600 students from across Canada and abroad, representing more than 16 nations. Faculty are highly qualified, dedicated Christians committed to academic excellence and communicating a Christian perspective in their teaching. Students are challenged both inside and outside the classroom to apply what they learn to their life and their future career.
