

September 8, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

King's appoints interim Athletics Director

Edmonton – The King's University College is pleased to announce the appointment of Grace Scott as Interim Athletic Director and Dan Skepple as Interim Assistant Athletic Director. This is a temporary shared position while Athletics Director, Craig Wilsman, is on an unpaid leave of absence during this academic year. Grace Scott will retain her position as Head Coach, Women's Volleyball, and Dan Skepple will serve as Interim Head Coach, Men's Basketball.

"We are grateful to have an experienced ACAC calibre coach guiding our Women's Volleyball Team. We are double blessed to have Grace, along with Dan Skepple, head-up our Athletics Department this coming year in my absence," said King's Director of Athletics Craig Wilsman.

Coach Scott brings a solid coaching resume with her with over 20 years of experience. Dan Skepple has also been coaching for over 20 years. Both are excited at giving leadership to King's sports teams during Wilsman's absence.

The King's University College offers fully accredited Bachelor degrees in the arts, humanities, music, social sciences, natural sciences and commerce/management, as well as an education after degree. King's currently serves over 600 students from across Canada and abroad, representing more than 16 nations. Faculty are highly qualified, dedicated Christians committed to academic excellence and communicating a Christian perspective in their teaching. Students are challenged both inside and outside the classroom to apply what they learn to their life and their future career.

Media enquiries may be directed to:

Ken Schwanke

Director of Marketing

(780) 465-3500 Ext. 8087

Email: ken.schwanke@kingsu.ca

www.kingsu.ca