FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

An Educational Christian Response to Climate Change

Edmonton – The King's University College is pleased to announce an evening of meaningful dialogue and interdisciplinary conversation on climate change entitled “My Climate. Your Climate. Our Change.”

The event will be held on campus March 5, 2008 from 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm.

The evening will feature renowned professor, scientist, conservationist, writer and leader in Christian stewardship, Dr. Calvin DeWitt. He will be addressing the scientific aspects of climate change and providing tangible ways in which people are called to care for creation. Mark your calendar and plan to be a part of this life changing event!
