The Big Picture, by Toronto playwright Dennis Hassell, is a stirring, epic drama that tells the story of God's relationship to humankind as it is told in the Bible. The sweeping narrative arc of this monumental play follows God's promise to humanity, starting with creation, through the Old Testament, to the gospel of Jesus and right through to Revelation. And it all happens imaginatively in one theatrical event.

The photos above are from the Brookstone Production of The Big Picture by Dennis Hassell and feature Richard Peters, Ins Choi, Andrea Cross, Blair Keyser and Paul King.
