THE KING'S UNIVERSITY

A Record of Success: The King's University in Edmonton is a lively, dynamic and nurturing learning environment. King's learning experience is enhanced by the institution's strong commitment to community service and faculty research. King's offers fully accredited three- and four-year Bachelor degrees in the arts, humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, and commerce, as well as a two-year Bachelor of Education after-degree. King's currently serves over 900 students of all ages from a variety of backgrounds from across Canada and abroad, representing a wide variety of nations.

Faculty Position: Computing Science
Tenure Track (Full Time)

ACADEMIC RANK
Assistant Professor (tenure track). Highly qualified candidates will be considered at higher rank.

STARTING SALARY
$62,929 and up. The University provides generous benefits.

DEADLINE
Application review process starts November 1, 2020. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

PREFERRED STARTING DATE
June 1, 2021

INSTITUTIONAL REQUIREMENTS
To be considered for appointment, the candidate must wholeheartedly endorse the Mission Statement and the Statement of Faith of the University (see https://www.kingsu.ca/about-us/about-kings/faith-commitment). The successful candidate must demonstrate graduate level course work in the Computing Science areas they will be teaching, or related experience. A Ph.D. in Computing Science or in related area is required.

TEACHING LOAD
Four term courses or equivalent per year, including labs and seminars.

PARTICULARS OF THE POSITION
The position is open to excellent candidates in all areas of computer science. The successful candidate should be able to offer a range of courses in computing science. She or he will be required to work closely with other faculty to deliver courses and contribute to the interdisciplinary learning environment. We seek a candidate that will augment our teaching and research strengths, bringing innovative and diverse perspectives and experiences. The successful candidate will be committed to a faith-based approach to teaching and learning in the discipline and is expected to develop a program of scholarship

APPOINTMENT
Subject to budget approval.

The King's University is a Christian liberal arts university offering three and four-year Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees, a Bachler of Commerce, a Bachelor of Music, and a two-year after-degree Bachelor of Education (Elementary and Secondary) accredited by the province of Alberta. The University is a member of Universities Canada and of the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities. Faculty members at The King's University are eligible for and are currently receiving Tri-Council funding. The faculty at The King's University are recognized for involving undergraduate students in their scholarship, with some faculty members having obtained external funding.

A condition of employment is assent to the University's Christian Statement of Faith found at: https://www.kingsu.ca/about-us/careers

Position will remain open until a suitable candidate is found. Forward curriculum vitae and letter of application (should be two pages and include brief statements on teaching, research, and alignment with the University's mission) to:

Dr. Kristopher Ooms, Vice President Academic and Research
The King's University
9125-50 Street, Edmonton, Alberta
T6B 2H3
Phone: 780-465-3500 ext. 8042
Email: Kristopher.Ooms@kingsu.ca

Visit our web site at www.kingsu.ca.

We appreciate all applicants for considering The King's University as a potential employer, however, only those considered for an interview will be contacted.

The King's University respects, appreciates and encourages diversity. We welcome applications from all qualified individuals including members of visible minorities, Indigenous, First Nations, Metis, and Inuit peoples and persons with disabilities. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.