Sessional Instructor: Kinesiology

Part-time

POSITION SUMMARY

The Faculty of Social Sciences at the King's University is seeking a sessional instructor(s) in Kinesiology for the fall term of the 2022-23 of the academic year. The courses meet 3 hours per week. We anticipate that these courses will be offered synchronously and in person at our campus in Edmonton.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Kinesiology/ Education 393 - Movement Activities for Children (Fall)

Tuesday and Thursday 11:00am – 12:20pm

Students will study movement activities for children in elementary school within a developmental framework. Special emphasis is placed on games, gymnastics and dance for children ages five to twelve years. The course combines theory, practical teaching experiences with children and critical reflection on these experiences in the context of children's physical development. This will include the study of free play and organized physical activities in recreational, educational, and sport environments.

Kinesiology 255 – Personal Physical Fitness and Wellness (Winter)

Tuesday and Thursday 2:00 – 3:20, Lab Wednesday 3:00 – 4:50

This introductory course examines many of the determinants of total wellness and is intended to assist students in developing an awareness of lifestyle issues, to provide them with information about a positive, healthy lifestyle and ultimately to encourage them to adopt healthy practices. Emphasis will be placed upon knowing and understanding basic concepts of fitness, nutrition, elementary first-aid, stress and disease control and applying these in the lab. A holistic approach will provide students with a deeper understanding of their responsibility for personal wellness as part of God's creation.

Kinesiology/Psychology 338 – Psychology of Sport and Exercise (Winter)

Tuesday and Thursday 3:30 – 4:50

This course is designed to introduce students to the relationship between psychological factors and sport and physical activity. There will be two main themes of this course: How psychological factors influence performance and experience in sport and physical activity and how sport and exercise influence psychological well-being. Students will learn to apply sport psychology theories to real situations such as coaching, sports medicine, physical education, health promotion, and training.

Kinesiology/Sociology 348 - Socio-Cultural Aspects of Sport (Winter)

Monday, Wednesday and Friday 10:00 – 10:50

This course examines how socio-cultural factors influence sport, and how sport has become a socializing agent of society and culture. Historical and sociological dimensions are explored. Aspects include the industry of sport, gender and sport, ethics and sport, and sport phenomena such as the Olympics.
