POSITION SUMMARY

Working with the Director and other members of the Development team, the Senior Donor Advisor acts to develop and execute strategies to build and enhance relationships with current major donors and to expand institutional support. Using a team approach to maximize personal strengths and interests, the successful candidate will contribute towards achieving fund raising goals by generating major gifts while contributing to the team's success.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Cultivate relationships with major donors within the context of King's wider community and translate these relationships into increased involvement and investment in King's.
- Manage a major gifts donor portfolio with activities ranging from identifying and qualifying major donor prospects, cultivating and soliciting major gifts face to face, and completing personalized stewardship.
- Develop communications to help support the university's fundraising efforts (assist with written, phone, video, email, letter communications as needed).
- Manage scholarship portfolio relations with donors and create opportunities for increased gift amounts and new agreements.
- Takes lead for lapsed and lapsing review on major gifts donors within their portfolio.
- Plan and execute planned giving strategies.
- Travel is required and may include some evenings and weekends.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Commitment to and understanding of Christian post-secondary education required.
- A university degree and/or equivalent combination of education and experience.
- Minimum 3 years of experience in advancement related fields such as fundraising, marketing, sales, recruitment, or communications strongly preferred.
- Strong organizational ability and capacity for details.
- Superior oral and written communication and interpersonal skills.
- Working knowledge of computer related office tools and database management; experience with Raiser's Edge or a similar constituent tracking database an asset
